

Gujarat

"Welcome to Gujarat — the land of temples, beaches, historic capitals, wildlife sanctuaries, hill resorts, magnificent sculptures, exquisite handicrafts, vibrant arts and festivals, a rich history, and thriving industries."

"Iconic Places"

Kutch

Welcome to Kutch: Where the Desert Whispers and Colors Dance

Known for its vast white salt desert (Rann of Kutch), vibrant festivals, and rich handicrafts, Kutch is a mesmerizing blend of nature and tradition.

- Visit Bhujodi Village – Explore traditional weaving and handicrafts.
- Explore Prag Mahal, a 19th-century Italian-Gothic palace.
- Discover Aina Mahal, famous for its intricate mirror work.
- Lunch at Noorani Mahal – Enjoy authentic Kutchi cuisine.
- Visit the Kutch Museum, the oldest museum in Gujarat.
- Relax at Hamirsar Lake and enjoy the sunset.
- Shop at the Local Market for Bandhani textiles and silver jewelry.
- Depart early for the Great Rann of Kutch.
- Witness the breathtaking White Desert sunrise.
- Visit Kalo Dungar (Black Hills) – the highest point in Kutch with panoramic views.
- Explore Dhordo Village – known for its traditional Bhunga houses.
- Visit the Rann Utsav Tent City.
- Experience the Full Moon Night at the White Rann.

Wildlife:

- Wild Ass Sanctuary (Little Rann) – Spot the endangered Indian wild ass.
- Dholavira – Explore the Harappan ruins, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Coastal Kutch:

- Relax at Mandvi Beach – Famous for its historic shipbuilding yard and watersports.
 - Visit Vijay Vilas Palace, a heritage site featured in Bollywood films.
 - Explore the Kutch Bustard Sanctuary.
-

Morbi

Morbi is known for its ceramic and tile industry, earning it the title of 'Ceramic City of India.' It is also famous for its suspension bridge, the Morbi Bridge, and its contributions to the industrial and architectural heritage of Gujarat.

- Explore Morbi's famous tile and ceramic showrooms (e.g., Kajaria, Somany).

- Discover why Morbi is called the “Ceramic Capital of India” and see how it produces world-class tiles.
 - Morbi Suspension Bridge (Julto Pul): Walk across the reconstructed 19th-century bridge over the Machhu River.
 - Learn its history and reflect on the 2022 tragedy and subsequent renewal.
 - Wellington Secretariat & Clock Tower: Admire the colonial-era architecture of Morbi’s historic administrative buildings.
 - Taste authentic local cuisine like dhokla, thepla, and kadhi at popular spots (e.g., Rajwadu).
 - Mani Mandir (Palace of Morbi’s Former Royals): Visit a stunning marble temple-palace with intricate carvings and serene surroundings.
 - Darbargadh Palace: Explore the royal heritage of Morbi’s Jadeja rulers—a perfect photography hotspot.
 - Evening relaxation at Machhu Dam: Take a riverside walk and enjoy scenic sunset views.
 - Dinner & shopping: Try delicious street food like khaman or jalebi-fafda, and shop for ceramic souvenirs or Morbi’s famous wall clocks.
-

Trip Highlights

- Explore Morbi’s ceramic showrooms in India’s “Ceramic Capital.”
 - Walk across the historic Morbi Suspension Bridge (Julto Pul).
 - Visit Mani Mandir & Darbargadh Palace for royal heritage.
 - Admire Wellington Secretariat & Clock Tower architecture.
 - Taste authentic Gujarati cuisine & street food.
 - Enjoy a sunset walk at Machhu Dam.
 - Witness the magical White Rann of Kutch under moonlight.
 - Discover Bhuj’s Aina Mahal, Prag Mahal & craft villages.
 - Relax at Mandvi Beach & Vijay Vilas Palace.
 - Experience Kutchi handicrafts, folk dance & culture.
 - Capture panoramic desert views from Kala Dungar.
-

Best Time to Visit: 🌤️ Winter (Oct – Mar): Best season for cultural festivals, cool climate, and the full beauty of the White Rann + comfortable Morbi sightseeing.