Gir Somnath & Diu

Welcome to Gir Somnath & Diu

Discover the perfect blend of spirituality, wildlife adventure, and coastal beauty. Gir Somnath is home to the sacred Somnath Jyotirlinga Temple, one of the twelve holy shrines of Lord Shiva, and the world-famous Gir National Park, the last natural habitat of the Asiatic lion. Just a short drive away lies Diu, a serene island town with pristine beaches, Portuguese heritage, and a relaxing seaside charm.

Gir – The Land of the Asiatic Lion

Embark on the thrilling Gir Jungle Trail and witness the majestic Asiatic lions in their natural habitat.

Enjoy an early morning safari for the best wildlife experience.

Visit the Devalia Safari Park (Interpretation Zone) for a shorter, fenced mini-safari.

Explore Kamleshwar Dam, home to crocodiles and migratory birds.

Discover the Crocodile Breeding Centre and experience local culture with folk performances at your resort.

Don't miss authentic Kathiawadi cuisine to complete your Gir experience.

---

Somnath – Eternal Jyotirlinga

Pay your respects at the Somnath Jyotirlinga Temple and witness the divine sunset, Aarti.

Visit Triveni Sangam, the holy confluence of three sacred rivers.

Explore Bhalka Tirth, where Lord Krishna is believed to have left his mortal body.

Discover history at the Prabhas Patan Museum with its ancient artifacts.

End your day with the spectacular Sound & Light Show at Somnath Temple, bringing legends to life.

---

Diu – Beaches & Portuguese Charm

Relax at the tranquil Nagoa Beach or take a peaceful evening stroll at Chakratirth and Ghoghla Beach.

Explore heritage landmarks like the Diu Fort, Panikhota (sea fort/jail), and St. Paul's Church with its grand Baroque design.

Wander through the mystical Naida Caves and pay homage at the INS Khukri Memorial.

For adventure lovers, indulge in water sports at Ghoghla or Nagoa Beach.

Enjoy fresh seafood with a stunning sunset view.

Early risers can visit the Fudam Bird Sanctuary or the rare Sea Shell Museum.
